

I oppose the CBA petitioning for Established Business Relationship Exemption. The people I do business with have my telephone number and if I wanted other members of the CBA to have it I would provide it to them. I don't want my privacy violated by unwanted and unsolicited telephone calls.